

The Shoe Game How To Play:

The bride and groom are seated on chairs in the middle of the venue, back-to-back. Both the bride and groom remove their shoes and exchange one so that they are both holding one of each shoe. During the game, a series of questions are asked, in which the answer can only be "bride or groom" and is answered by the bride and groom by holding up one of the shoes that goes with their answer.

- 1.) Who said "I love you" first?
- 2.) Who spends more time on Social Media?"
- 3.) Which one of you is the bigger country music fan?
- 4.) Who always wants breakfast?"
- 5.) Who is the better dancer?
- 6.) Who chooses where you eat for dinner?
- 7.) Who loses their phone all the time?
- 8.) Who spends more money?
- 9.) Which one of you is more likely to get a traffic ticket?
- 10.) Who loves the great outdoors more?"
- 11.) Which one of you prefers a night staying in rather than a night on the town?
- 12.) Who did more of the wedding planning?
- 13.) Who snores the loudest?
- 14.) Who hogs all the covers in bed?
- 15.) Who is more likely to save their change in a jar?
- 16.) Which one of you is more clumsy?
- 17.) In this couple, who has the craziest family?
- 18.) Which one of you watches the most goofy shows on tv?
- 19.) Who's idea was it to have the wedding right here?
- 20.) Who will be "wearing the pants" or be the boss in this couple?

"That's it, let's give the couple one more round of applause..."
